

Gaston College

International Student Admissions Policy

Thank you for your interest in Gaston College as an F-1 student. Gaston College has an open-door admission policy. Applicants must be at least 18 years of age or possess a high school diploma or equivalent to enroll. General Admissions Requirements are as follows:

1. Complete and submit an application
2. Complete online New Student Orientation
3. Submit official high school transcript*

*If transcripts are in another language, an official English translation is required. The translation must be by a certified translator. Students whose foreign transcripts cannot be evaluated by college personnel are responsible for providing a transcript evaluation from a recognized American transcript evaluation agency.

Admittance:

International students must meet all admission requirements listed under General Admission Requirements. In addition, international students must complete and submit additional documentation prior to enrolling at Gaston College.

Evidence of English Competency:

Proof of English proficiency is required. Before entering a full-time academic (college) program, a student is required to have a minimum Testing of English as a Foreign Language Internet Base Test (TOEFL IBT) score of Reading: 17; Listening: 17; Speaking: 16 and Writing: 16. International English Language Testing System (IELTS) scores of Reading: 6.5; Listening 6.5; Speaking: 6.5 and Writing: 6.5.

Funding:

Gaston College does not offer scholarships or other types of financial aid for international students. An F-1 student may accept off-campus employment only if the U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Service has granted prior approval. An affidavit of financial support signed by the person responsible for support accompanied by supporting documents (bank statement or letter from sponsor's bank indicating sufficient funds) must be presented.

Housing and Transportation:

Gaston College is a commuter institution and does not have dormitories or housing for rent. Students must find their own housing in the neighboring towns. Transportation to the college must be arranged by the student.

Gaston College is approved to issue I-20 forms for international students who are interested in studying in our associate degree programs, including university transfer Associate in Science or Associate in Arts degrees. These programs prepare students to enter most four-year colleges and universities at the junior level to complete a bachelor's degree.

For students who will be entering the United States for the first time to study, the following information will be helpful.

For information on bringing dependents to the U.S., returning to continue studies, renewing your visa, or details on how to apply for a student visa, refer to the U.S. Department of State website, at: www.travel.state.gov .

- 1. Contact your local U.S. Consulate or Embassy
- 2. Schedule an interview for your F-1 student visa
- 3. Complete required forms
- 4. Pay the visa application fee
- 5. Pay the SEVIS fee
- 6. What to bring to your visa interview

1. Contact your local U.S. Consulate or Embassy to ask about how to get an F-1 international student visa. A list of Consulates and Embassies can be found at: <http://usembassy.state.gov/>.

2. After you receive an I-20 form from Gaston College, follow the U.S. Embassy/Consulate's instructions to schedule an interview for your F-1 student visa. It is important to apply for your student visa as far in advance as possible. Many consulates recommend that appointments be made no more than 90 days from the intended date of travel, but some can make earlier arrangements for interviews.

3. Complete the following forms:

- DS-160 Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application or
DS-156 Nonimmigrant Visa Application Form
- DS-158 Contact Information and Work History for Nonimmigrant Visa Applicant
- If a male between the ages of 16 and 45, DS-157 Supplemental Nonimmigrant Visa Application

Check the requirements of the U.S. Embassy or Consulate in your country as some require only the DS-160 and others require the DS-156, 157 and 158. Visa Forms

4. Pay the visa application fee by following instructions on your local U.S. embassy or consulate's website.

5. Pay the I-901 SEVIS fee.

To Pay Online

- Find the Form I-901 at www.fmjfee.com.
- Complete the form online and supply the necessary Visa, MasterCard or American Express information. *Be sure to write your name exactly how it appears on your I-20 form.
- Print a copy of the online receipt.
- Be sure to make copies of your receipt and keep it with your other important immigration documents.

You must bring the fee payment receipt with you to the interview. If you have lost the receipt, the Visa Officer may be able to view your payment history in his or her database.

If you are transferring schools, extending your program, applying for an F-2 dependent visa, or have paid this fee and been denied a visa within the last twelve months, you do not need to pay the SEVIS fee.

6. Prepare and bring to your visa interview the following:

- A passport valid for at least six months
- Form I-20 (sign at the bottom of the form in the Student Attestation section)
- School admission letter
- Completed visa applications (DS-160 or DS-156, DS-158, and, if applicable, DS-157)
- Two 2" x 2" photographs in the prescribed format
<https://travel.state.gov/content/travel/en/passports/requirements/photos.html>.
- A receipt for the visa application fee
- A receipt for the I-901 SEVIS fee. Please print the receipt. If you do not have a receipt, the consulate may be able to see your payment electronically if your fee payment was processed at least 3 business days before your interview. www.fmjfee.com
- Financial evidence that shows you have sufficient funds to cover your tuition and living expenses during the period you intend to study. (The total amount from your I-20)
- Any information that proves that you will return to your home country after finishing your studies in the U.S. This may include proof of property, family, or other ties to your community.

You may be refused entry into the United States if you attempt to arrive more than 30 days before the program start date listed in the Program of Study section of the SEVIS I-20 form.
