

Financial Literacy

Financial literacy is defined by Webster's Dictionary as the education and understanding of knowing how money is made, spent, and saved, as well as the skills and ability to use financial resources to make decisions.

Gaston College realizes that even though loans are not certified by the College that students transfer to our institution with debt. To assist these students, we have additional resources through CFNC that students may find beneficial: a) 20 Things You Need to Know About Financing College, b) Financial Literacy 101, c) Debt Management and d) Loan Repayment.

To assist you with your personal money management needs, we have listed several websites below that you may also find helpful in addition to the CFNC information above:
